

Dr. Pankaj Kumar

Pankaj Kumar is Head, department of Sociology, Asansol Girls' College, Kazi Nazrul University (KNU), West Bengal. He has completed his M.A. from Jawaharlal Nehru University, M.Phil from Delhi University and Ph.D from University of Burdwan (WB). He has published several research papers in edited books and referred journals of national and international repute touching upon various aspects of tribal displacement and presented several research papers in various state, national, international conferences and workshop. Women and child issues are his special areas of interest. He has published an edited book on gender issues "Relocating Women's Equality" and another book on "Interrogating Child Problems-Issues and Challenges".