Asansol Girls' College at a Glance

Asansol Girls' College was established in 1950 in Asansol to spread the light of higher education for women in this Industrial Belt (Shilpanchal). The college is accredited with 'B++' grade (Third Cycle) by NAAC. It always strives to utilize the optimum level of human resource.

Theme of the Seminar

Sanskrit is an ancient Indian language, considered as an important part of the historical and cultural heritage of the Indian subcontinent. Indian knowledge system is the most ancient and rich source of knowledge in the world. Vedas, Vedangas, Upanishadas, Puranas, Yoga, Ayurveda, Bhagavat Gita are the medium of education of human development as Guru-Shishya Parampara or Shruti. This tradition is the balanced way of personal, social, scientific & technological development and above all global development. Universal brotherhood and empathy are the basics of well being of individuals, society, nation and ecological surroundings propagated in Indian Vedic Culture.

"Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam" is announced by ancient Indian text i.e. Sangyan Sukta of Rigveda. The declared notions of Universal Brotherhood are outcome of unbiased universal acceptance. "Samgachchadhvam.....".

"Sarve Bhabantu Sukhinah, Sarve Santu Niramayah....".

Action oriented life based on Karmayoga of the Bhagavat Gita is important lifestyle of the human being. "Yogah Karmashu Kaushalam"

Upanishada propounds the spiritual peak of thought accepting the law of causation and omnipresence of Paramatman. "Ishawashyamidam sarvam yat kinch jagatyam jagat...."

The Indian Knowledge System inspires scholars and thinkers of present times. Aryabhatta, Bhaskaracharya, Charak, Sushruta, Kanad, Brahmagupta, Nagarjuna, Mahaviracharya, Barahamihira were the ancient scientists, renowned doctors and famous surgeons of their time. Their texts are important as well as relevant for research in the present day.

Among ancient Rishis or seers of Vedic Mantras women were equally accepted for their wisdom. Scholars like Gargi, Maitree, Ghosha, Apala, Lopamudra etc and their references are inevitably important in present day scenario.

In this one-day seminar learned scholars, eminent scientists, doctors, academicians, research scholars are invited to explore new horizons of thought and wisdom for their multi divergent thinking.
